

From: alastair Southgate, Transport Strategy Manager [<mailto:Alastair.Southgate@essex.gov.uk>]

Sent: 19 January 2015 16:19

To: Richard White

Cc: Matthew Bradley, Strategic Development Manager; julia.brooks@essexhighways.org; Contact Essex; Andrew Cook, Director for Operations: Environment & Economy; Sean Perry, Head of Economic Growth and Development; Matthew Jericho, Spatial Planning Manager; Chris Stevenson2, Head of Commissioning Connected Essex Integrated Transport

Subject: FW: A14 Cambridge to Huntingdon National Infrastructure Project - Adequacy of Consultation

Dear Richard,

Re: A14 Cambridge to Huntingdon National Infrastructure Project - Adequacy of Consultation.

Essex County Council responded to various consultations during the development of the A14 Cambridge to Huntingdon National Infrastructure Project and believes the consultation process has been appropriate and ECC has had appropriate opportunities to input.

Regards

Alastair

Alastair Southgate

Transportation Strategy Manager

Place Commissioning (Transport and Infrastructure)

Essex County Council

Telephone: 03330 130561 | mobile 07585 909494

Email: alastair.southgate@essex.gov.uk | www.essex.gov.uk