Thank you James.

The link provided by Ms Williams of the DCMS takes you to the Specialists' Report to the WH Committee along with the Committee's draft Decision.

The WH Committee adopted the Decision unchanged from the draft wording (<https://whc.unesco.org/archive/2019/whc19-43com-7B-en.pdf>, p.205) on 4 July 2019. I cannot provide a link to this fact in writing, only to the recording of the meeting on the day: <https://whc.unesco.org/en/sessions/43COM/records/?day=2019-07-04#tVP7JfF-HnIA0>, afternoon session (15h–18h). at c. 1:17:48.

Item 6 of the Decision reads as follows:

6. Requests the State Party to ensure that this present World Heritage Committee Decision (43 COM 7B.95) is conveyed to the Planning Inspectorate, to other decision-makers, to known stakeholders and to the wider community through the DCO online exhibition, and that mechanisms are put in place to ensure that the World Heritage Centre, ICOMOS International and the World Heritage Committee continue reviewing and assessing the design plans at the appropriate stages of the project, in conformity with the Operational Guidelines;

In past years it has taken some days – if not weeks – for adopted Decisions to be confirmed on the UNESCO website under the page for each WHS. I would respectfully ask if the Decision might be published on the “DCO online exhibition” (presumably the website) as soon as possible as it will be of interest to many.

All best – Kate
