

From: [REDACTED]
To: A303 Stonehenge
Subject: The proposed tunnel
Date: 31 March 2022 12:17:37

Dear Sirs,

The damage done to the archaeology and appearance of the Stonehenge area by the proposed work would make this country a laughing stock amongst civilised communities. It would reduce tourist interest and income, and the Heritage value of the country as a whole for the sake of those firms who would benefit from work which could only have at best a short term value for the few years left before the effects of climate change become inescapable.

Yours faithfully,

Peter Forrester, BA (Dunelm).