Dear Sir or Madam,

As a private citizen, albeit one who has enjoyed the sight of Stonehenge over many years, I think the proposed new dual carriageway would seriously threaten this world-renowned archeological site. If approval is given, the detrimental effect on the site may well result in Stonehenge losing its World Heritage Status.

I with millions of others around the globe, not just in the UK, and not least among them professional archeologists, beg you to turn down this proposal.

Yours sincerely,

Patricia Williamson
