

From: [REDACTED]
To: A303 Stonehenge
Subject: re-examination of Development Consent Order
Date: 02 April 2022 22:02:28

---

The broader and deeper Stonehenge site is still largely unexplored and is a critically important archeological asset for the UK today and for all future generations. It has survived thousands of years without this kind of irreconcilable intervention. There are also other compelling grounds for a re-examination of the DCO including current cost estimates, broader environmental factors and the UNESCO position on the scheme.

david chalmers alesworth

[REDACTED]