To whom it may concern,

I would like to make my feelings known about the Road Widening Scheme planned for the A303.

Any further destruction caused to this monumental heritage site would be a desecration and a disgrace.

When I visited Stonehenge as a child it was disrupted by noise from the road nearby and felt like you were in an island on a busy motorway. When I visited more recently with my step siblings, it has become a wonderful, peaceful and spiritual experience, with a proper museum visitors centre and no disturbance from traffic.

Remarkable things have been discovered there since I visited as a child, and I hope to take my niece and my son there one day so they can experience it too. The road widening and tunnelling scheme is completely ignorant of the damage it will cause to the site and how it will deprive future generations, and I am against it.

Many thanks
Laura Twist
