Dear Anne-Marie Trevelyan

In over a decade of Tory 'government' there have been many times when I have thought surely this can't be happening in this country. The lack of a functioning Opposition is no excuse for the descent into such behaviour as we have witnessed especially since calling the Referendum. The fear I felt when Boris Johnson gained power is nothing to the dread of Truss who is really [REDACTED]. We are ruined financially for decades and now YOU are trying once again to ruin Stonehenge. When will this nightmare end?

Hopefully you will receive many letters and emails begging you to STOP. Could an election change anything or have you managed to create a DICTATORSHIP and destroy ALL our civil rights? Supporting every organisation I think might achieve change I can only hope for change and a just society for good people.

Yours sincerely

Mrs C L R Ward
