Welcome

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross

Improving reliability, safety, local life and regional growth

Welcome to the A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross consultation, and thank you for your interest in our plans.

Currently, journeys on this section of the A30 are delayed. Congestion brings traffic to a standstill and the Cornish economy is being held back.

Improving the A30 between Chiverton and Carland Cross will make journeys safer, quicker and more reliable, as well as improving local life and regional economic growth.

We've made real progress with our plans over the last couple of years and we're now about to enter the final round of public consultation before we submit an for a Development Consent Order to build the scheme.

Find out about our plans in detail, talk to us and have your say.

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross

The story so far

Despite previous attempts to improve the A30 between Chiverton and Carland Cross, it remains the only single carriageway section between Camborne and the M5 at Exeter.

We have been developing and refining our plans since work started on the scheme in 2014. This timeline shows the progress so far:

2014 – The Government releases the Road Investment Strategy which includes a commitment to funds to upgrade the A30 between Chiverton and Carland Cross.

2015 – Engagement events were held by Cornwall Council which showed overwhelming support for the scheme, both locally and from across Cornwall.

2016 – On the back of the engagement events, we developed and assessed options to improve this section of the A30. We then asked for your feedback on our proposed options in late 2016.

Early 2017 – We held a localised engagement event to explain changes we wanted to make to the options at Marazanvose and get local people's feedback.

July 2017 – After carefully considering and reviewing all of the feedback from local people and stakeholders, we announced the preferred route.

July 2017 to present – Since announcing the preferred route we have been developing the design of the route, talking to land owners, undertaking additional surveys and progressing our environmental assessments.

The scheme is receiving a funding contribution of up to £8 million from the European Regional Development Fund to support the development phase.

Fast facts

- Over 95% of respondents from the 2016 consultation agreed with the need for the scheme.
- Journeys on this section often take twice as long when compared to other sections of the A30, and 4 times longer in the summer months.
- The roundabout at Chiverton Cross is officially the worst place for road incidents in the whole of Cornwall.
- By 2022 the road is expected to be carrying more traffic than it was designed for and congestion will get worse.
- Compared to the rest of the A30, whose journey times are relatively reliable, travelling between Chiverton and Carland Cross can take anywhere between 7 and 28 minutes.
- In 2014, an approximate total of 19 million visitors generated £2.6bn to the economy and supported 53,000 jobs.
- Despite this, productivity across Cornwall in 2015 was 26% lower than the English average, and has continued to fall over time.
- With our proposals, every £1 invested is expected to generate an economic benefit of £3-£4.

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross

Developing the Scheme

The key elements of the scheme consist of:

- An 8.7 mile, high quality 70mph dual carriageway, connecting to the existing A30 dual carriageways at either end
- The replacement of Chiverton Cross roundabout with a new, 2 level motorway style roundabout
- A new, 2 level partial junction at Chybucca, with west-facing slip roads connecting to the new dual carriageway
- Replacement of the existing roundabout at Carland Cross with a 2 level motorway style junction
- New bridges and accesses across the new road and the old road
- Retention of the existing A30 including the construction of further local roads to maintain connectivity

To help you provide feedback on the scheme we have split it into the following sections:

Section A – Chiverton Cross junction to Chybucca

Section B – Chybucca to Zelah

Section C – Zelah to Carland Cross junction

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross

Section A – What we propose

1. At the western end of the scheme, the new dual carriageway would connect to the existing dual carriageway west of the existing Chiverton Cross junction.
2. In order to separate traffic travelling east or west on the new dual carriageway from local traffic, for example accessing the A390 (Truro), A3075 (Newquay) or B3277 (St Agnes), we are proposing a new 2 level junction to replace the existing roundabout.
3. The new junction would be located to the north of the existing A30. This allows us to keep traffic moving in this area during construction.
4. The existing A30 to the east of the new Chiverton Cross junction would be retained as a parallel side road for local traffic. This and the other side roads would be realigned to join the new junction roundabout. The side roads and the junction roundabout would be operated by Cornwall Council as the local highway authority.
5. The new dual carriageway would continue to the east of the new junction and stay to the north of the existing A30 towards the new Chybucca junction.
6. The existing Chiverton Cross roundabout would be removed.

To find out about our key considerations for this section of road, please refer to page 10 of the consultation booklet.

Section B – Chybucca junction to Zelah

The numbers on this plan are explained on the next banner

An artists impression of the finished junction

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross

Section B – What we propose

1. At Chybucca the new dual carriageway is proposed to cross from north of the existing A30 to the south.
2. A new junction at Chybucca to allow the existing A30 and B3284 to cross the new A30 dual carriageway. The junction would include:
 - 2a. West facing slip roads on and off the new A30 dual carriageway to allow access for A30 eastbound traffic to join the B3284 and the A3075, and for westbound traffic to join the new A30.
 - 2b. New roundabouts on each side of the new bridge crossing, to connect the junction slip roads and the side roads.
3. To the east of Chybucca junction an underpass is proposed for Allet Road junction and close to the village of Tresawen, to maintain connections across the new dual carriageway. This would include new emergency accesses to take traffic off the dual carriageway after an incident and also allow access for the emergency services.
4. The existing side road at Marazanvose would be closed off with alternative access for all users and properties via the Shortlanesend Road.
5. The existing underpass at Two Barrows would be retained, to maintain access along Shortlanesend Road, local connections to the adjacent village of Zelah, and access to the realigned existing A30.
6. A replacement bridge at Tolgroggan would maintain the existing bridleways access to the farm, and provide a crossing point for protected species. This would span the new dual carriageway and the realigned existing A30.
7. The new dual carriageway would use the existing underpass at Two Barrows.
8. The existing A30 would be realigned to maintain this as a parallel route and also create a junction and connection with Shortlanesend Road
9. A green bridge east of Marazanvose with associated tree planting to encourage local wildlife to safely cross the proposed dual carriageway.

To find out about our key considerations for this section of road, please refer to page 17 of the consultation booklet.

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross

Section C – Zelah to Carland Cross junction

The numbers on this plan are explained on the next banner

An artists impression of the finished junction

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross

Section C – What we propose

1. The level of the new A30 dual carriageway would be similar or lower than the existing A30, where it is adjacent to the village of Zelah.
2. At Church Lane in Zelah, an underpass is proposed for walkers, cyclists and horse-riders (non-vehicular users). The crossing of the existing A30 would be retained, keeping the local connection from the village to the Church in the south.
3. At the east of Zelah, an underpass crossing the new dual carriageway and the existing A30 would maintain the connection from Trevalso Lane to the local road network. To accommodate this new connection, Herver Lane and the existing A30 would be realigned to form a T junction with Trevalso Lane.
4. A new underpass at Pennycomequick Lane would maintain access for local farms and properties. The lane would be realigned to the east and drop into the adjacent valley.
5. A new 2 level junction at Carland Cross to replace the existing roundabout and maintain access to the A39 to Truro. This consists of:
 - 5a. A new roundabout to the north of the A30. This would connect to the eastbound slip roads of the new A30 dual carriageway and the old A30.
 - 5b. The existing roundabout would be retained and connect in to the westbound slips for the new A30.
 - 5c. A new road would connect the new and old roundabouts. The new A30 would pass over the top of the connector road with the junction roundabouts placed at a lower level below.
 - 5d. To the west of the new roundabout, the new A30 dual carriageway would cross the line of the existing A30. At this location the existing A30 would be realigned to join the new roundabout.
 - 5e. The expectation is that the remaining section of the existing A30 to the old Carland Cross roundabout would be retained for use by walkers, cyclists and horse-riders (non-vehicular users). It would pass under the new A30.
6. To the east of the new Carland Cross junction, the new dual carriageway re-joins the existing A30 dual carriageway close to the end of the junction slip roads.
7. The lane from Pennycomequick to Ennis Farm will be realigned slightly to the south, so that it is kept open and continues to run adjacent to the new A30.

To find out about our key considerations for this section of road, please refer to page 21 of the consultation booklet.

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross

Environment

We need to balance the need to build the new dual carriageway with consideration for the environment. To inform this balance, we are undertaking an environmental impact assessment which includes carrying out surveys to enable us to understand the potential effects of our proposals.

As part of this consultation we have published a Preliminary Environmental Information Report that gives the environmental information we have gathered so far on the project, and on which we have based our decisions.

We are committed to minimising any effects the scheme may have on the environment and communities. The Preliminary Environmental Information Report explains how we have assessed the potential environmental effects of the scheme and what measures are being taken to avoid, reduce or rectify the impacts of the scheme.

The scheme currently incorporates the following environmental mitigation measures that have been identified as part of the environmental assessment process:

- 21 possible multi-species crossings
- Woodland planting
- Cornish hedgerows
- Low noise surfacing
- A green bridge at Marazanvose.

You can view all our proposed environmental mitigation plans on the Draft Environmental Master Plans, which can be found on figure 7.6 of the Preliminary Environmental Assessment Report. A direct link to this can be found on our consultation webpage.

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross

The existing A30

The existing A30 is currently managed by Highways England. As part of our application for consent we will be handing responsibility for the existing A30 to Cornwall Council. We are in consultation with Cornwall Council about how they will manage the existing road once the new A30 is built. We are currently considering the following areas, which may be improved by Cornwall Council as part of this handover:

- The operation of Henvver Lane, Boxheater junction, and Penstraze Lane
- Provisions for walking, cycling and horse riding infrastructure on the existing A30
- Provision of signs, laybys and speed limits on the existing A30 road

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross

What the scheme means to you

Reduce congestion

- The A30 between Chiverton and Carland Cross regularly forms a bottleneck in the Cornish road network. A modern dual carriageway with improved junctions would make journeys quicker, safer and more reliable for everyone.

Economic growth

- Heavy congestion makes holiday destinations, businesses and jobs seem hard to get to. A dual carriageway with improved junctions would improve access. This is good for housing, tourism, productivity and creating more jobs.

Connect communities

- Regular traffic jams force frustrated drivers to divert to minor roads which are not suitable for heavy traffic. Removing the amount of traffic on the existing A30 would improve safety in local villages and allow communities and businesses to remain connected.

Safety

- With fewer stop-starts and improved junction layouts will make journeys quicker and drivers much less likely to divert onto local roads. This will reduce driver stress and improve safety on both the A30 and roads through local communities.

Environment and community

- Reducing congestion and retaining the existing A30 as a local road would improve life for local people, prevent additional noise and exhaust fumes, eliminate unnecessary traffic through local towns and leave a positive legacy for the environment.

Minimise disruption

- By retaining the existing A30, the majority of the new dual carriageway can be built completely away from the existing road. This is safer, quicker and less disruptive to road users, and reduces the likelihood of further congestion and unreliability.

Plans to upgrade the A30 in Cornwall to go on public display

Businesses, residents and road users in Cornwall will get the chance to see detailed plans of the proposed A30 Chiverton Cross to Carland Cross upgrade when Highways England launches consultation later this month.

Published 19 January 2018

From:

Highways England (<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/highways-england>)

Highways England announced the preferred route for the £290 million improvement scheme, part of the Government's £15 billion Road Investment Strategy, in July last year.

The improvement to the eight-mile stretch will help to improve journey times for residents, businesses and visitors, as well as unlocking one of the last bottlenecks in Cornwall.

And since the preferred route was announced, Highways England has been working with landowners along the route to develop the design of the scheme, the details of which will be announced when consultation starts on Monday, 29 January.

Josh Hodder, Project Manager for Highways England, said:

We recognise the strategic importance of improving this section of the A30 in helping to unlock economic growth in Cornwall and the whole of the region.

We look forward to sharing our plans with local stakeholders, businesses and the community, full details of the proposals will be made available when we launch the consultation and we welcome all feedback.

The scheme offers a number of benefits to the area - as well as boosting the area's economy, upgrading this stretch of the A30 is vital to improving motorists' journeys, cutting congestion, improving safety and connecting local communities.

After the opening of the Cornwall Council-led A30 Temple to Higher Carblake dualling scheme last summer, Highways England is proposing to upgrade the eight-mile Chiverton to Carland Cross section, which will offer drivers more than 100 miles of dual carriageway between the M5 and Camborne in Cornwall.

The cost of developing the scheme is being partly funded by an £8 million contribution from the European Regional Development Fund. The remainder of the cost of developing and delivering the scheme will be funded by central Government.

Cllr Geoff Brown, Portfolio Holder for Transport at Cornwall Council added:

I welcome this next step and the further consultation with communities. The scheme will help to improve journey times for local people, businesses and visitors and we know from previous public engagement that there is strong support locally to improve this stretch of the A30.

This project will build upon the excellent working relationship that we have with Highways England and I encourage people to take this opportunity to view the proposals and discuss them with the Highways England design team.

Public consultation events, offering people the chance to see the proposals and meet with members of the project team, will be held at the following:

- Friday, 2 February - St Erme Community Centre, near Truro TR4 9AP, 2pm-8pm
- Wednesday, 7 February - Blackwater Village Hall, Blackwater TR4 8ET, 2pm-8pm
- Thursday, 8 February - Perranporth Methodist Chapel, Boscawen Road, Perranporth TR6 0EW, 10am-4pm
- Saturday, 10 February – New County Hall, Treyew Road, Truro TR1 3AY, 11am-5pm
- Monday, 12 February – Victory Hall, Indian Queens, St Columb TR9 6PP, 2pm-8pm
- Tuesday, 13 February – Shortlanesend Village Hall, School Hill, Shortlanesend TR4 9DU, 2pm-8pm
- Wednesday, 14 February – St Michael the Archangel Church, Newquay TR7 1RA, 2pm-8pm

And information will also be available to view, from 29 January to 12 March, at the following local information points:

- County Hall, Truro
- Truro Community Library
- St Agnes Library
- Perranporth Library

- Redruth Library
- Newquay Library

More details will be available on the scheme website (<http://roads.highways.gov.uk/projects/a30-carland-cross-to-chiverton/>) from Monday, 29 January.

Following consultation, the scheme will then progress through the formal planning process and, subject to statutory approval under the 2008 Planning Act and the Secretary of State, construction is planned to start in spring 2020.

Have your say before consultation closes on A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross upgrade

Businesses, residents and road users in Cornwall are being urged to have their say on the A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross upgrade before consultation ends next week.

Close to 1,000 people attended a number of public information events throughout February, and this is the last chance for people to give their views on proposals to dual the 8.7-mile section of the A30.

Consultation on the proposals for the Highways England scheme continues until 12 March and anyone who would like to comment can still do so at <https://highwaysengland.citizenspace.com/he/a30-chiverton-cross-to-carland-cross-statutory-con/>

Project Manager Josh Hodder said: "We recognise the importance of improving this section of the A30 in Cornwall, and have enjoyed sharing our progressed plans with local stakeholders, businesses and the community over the last month.

"The consultation is still open so it is vital that people use this opportunity to have their say and tell us what they think about our proposals. We were delighted to engage with the 882 people who attended our seven public events, but we really do urge people to give their views.

"Whether people are in support, or have ideas about how we might change or improve the scheme, it's really important to help inform our decision-making, and we would welcome your feedback. The consultation is open until the 12 March."

The planned upgrade will offer drivers more than 100 miles of dual carriageway between the M5 and Camborne in Cornwall, unlocking economic growth in the region, improving motorists' journeys, cutting congestion, improving safety and connecting local communities along the route.

The cost of developing the scheme is being partly funded by an £8 million contribution from the European Regional Development Fund, with an additional £12 million for the construction phase. The remainder of the cost of developing and delivering the scheme will be funded by central Government.

Following consultation, the scheme will then progress through the formal planning process later this year. Subject to statutory approval, construction is planned to start in spring 2020.

Great response to the A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross consultation

Consultation on the A30 Chiverton Cross to Carland Cross improvement scheme in Cornwall saw a committed response from local communities, businesses and road users.

Published 21 March 2018

From:

Highways England (<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/highways-england>)

Close to 1,000 people attended seven public information events throughout February, with a similar number submitting written feedback on the more detailed plans exhibited during consultation.

Consultation on proposals to upgrade and dual the 8-mile section of the A30 closed on 12 March.

The £290 million improvement scheme, part of the Government's £15 billion Road Investment Strategy, will help to promote economic growth, improve journey times and increase safety by unlocking one of the last major bottlenecks in Cornwall.

During consultation, the public were able to see and submit feedback on the detailed proposals, which include:

- a 70mph high-quality dual carriageway
- a two-level junction at Chiverton Cross and a new roundabout to ensure the free flow of traffic on the A30
- a new partial junction at Chybucca built on two levels with west-facing slip roads to provide access onto the dual carriageway from local routes

- new bridges at Tolgroggan Farm, Pennycomequick Lane and over the Allet to Tresawsen road to provide local access
- a two-level junction at Carland Cross with a new roundabout north of the dual carriageway and re-using the existing roundabout to the south
- keeping the existing A30 as a local route with new sections where necessary to provide continuity and connectivity for local communities
- undertaking construction away from the existing A30 route to ensure continuity during this period

Project manager Josh Hodder said:

The project team are delighted with the response to consultation and the variety of constructive feedback we've received – local communities, businesses and organisations have really engaged well with us.

We recognise the strategic importance of improving this section of the A30, we've enjoyed sharing our proposals with local stakeholders, businesses and the community.

We were really pleased to meet and engage with the 882 people who attended our seven public events, it really helps inform our decision making on the finer details of the scheme.

Over the next few months, we will be keeping people up to date via our web page and regular newsletters as we continue to work and move forward towards submitting our planning application.

Anyone wishing to receive newsletters can sign up by emailing the project team at A30ChivertonCrosstoCarlandCross@highwaysengland.co.uk or by logging on to the web page. (<http://www.highways.gov.uk/A30Chiverton>)

Following consultation, the scheme will now progress through the formal Planning Act 2008 process later this year.

A planning application will be submitted in late summer/early autumn and on acceptance of this, people will have the opportunity to register with the Planning Inspectorate to have their say.

The cost of developing the scheme is being partly funded by an £8 million contribution from the European Regional Development Fund, with an additional £12 million for the construction phase. The remainder of the cost of developing and delivering the scheme will be funded by central Government.

Subject to statutory approval, construction is planned to start in spring 2020.

The New Moon in Capricorn has been and gone. Personally, you are sure to be feeling more secure, if not adored. You never imagined that others would agree to your terms. So you should be happy, really happy. Though you may have to think about how to fund your future today.

AQUARIUS JANUARY 21 - FEBRUARY 19

No doubt you were completely taken aback by what you discovered. Not too disappointed. In a sense, you have been living in an ivory tower. There is still lack of information which only the universe knows. However, since Venus moves into Aquarius, life doesn't have to be so serious.

Despite being invited to more parties and soirees, your energy is rapidly being depleted, and you may be a bit anti-social. However, you should leave the door open as far as one particular friend is concerned. What you overhear might give you second thoughts. Make an effort anyway.

By nature, you may be competitive and argumentative, which hasn't done you any favours. However, you appear to be in a position of strength, and isn't life about success? Now, with Venus in Aquarius, you should be more popular today. In fact, you didn't know you had so many friends.

It's boom or bust. Though you should be able to recoup a financial investment that is costing you a fortune. True, with Venus moving into Aquarius, you will soon know the precise value of something that no money can buy - your freedom. Take some time off today. Life is a holiday.

SCORPIO OCTOBER 24 - NOVEMBER 22

After a bit of toing and froing, you could decide to move no further than the sitting room. Apart from that, you may have to reduce the number of journeys you make, not to cut your carbon emissions, but simply for the family's sake. Home is where the heart is today.

YOUR HOROSCOPE WITH Justin Toper

CAPRICORN DECEMBER 22 - JANUARY 20

Like many Capricorns, you want to have fun. Even though you may be condemned by some of your friends for being boring. The problem is not that you are unsociable. If anything, you could do something madly irresponsible today. Never mind. Try to remain under the radar if possible.

AQUARIUS JANUARY 21 - FEBRUARY 19

Your confidence may have been dented recently. Both personally and professionally you can only learn from the experience. In one area alone you could be successful. Even though you dare not mention it to anyone else in case you blow your chances. Everyone knows, so that's useless.

PISCES FEBRUARY 20 - MARCH 20

You may wish you hadn't shared certain information with friends. Maybe you should take a small break from social media today? There could be a meeting to attend at another venue where no one really knows you. In reality, what you are pursuing has a degree of impossibility about it.

Dear <name>

ADDITIONAL CONSULTATION ON AMENDMENTS TO A30 CHIVERTON TO CARLAND CROSS DEVELOPMENT CONSENT ORDER UNDER SECTION 42 (1) (d)
OF THE PLANNING ACT 2008

As you may be aware, Highways England intends to make an application to the Secretary of State for Transport for a Development Consent Order (DCO) for the construction of an 8.7-mile dual carriageway between Chiverton and Carland Cross (the scheme).

Under the Planning Act 2008 and the Infrastructure Planning (Applications: Prescribed Forms and Procedure) Regulations 2009, Highways England is required to undertake consultation with those that have an interest in the land affected by the application for a DCO. I am writing to you because you have a legal interest in land that may be affected by the scheme. This land is shown on the enclosed plan, which also shows the updated proposed scheme.

We wrote to consultees on 29 January 2018 to notify them of the statutory consultation on the scheme proposals. Consultation closed on 12 March 2018. Highways England has had regard to the consultation responses from relevant organisations, landowners and the public. As a result of this, we have further developed and refined the plans for the scheme.

These changes are being driven by a combination of consultation feedback, further environmental assessment information, up to date information from statutory undertakers on their requirements/location of their apparatus, and design changes linked to the constructability of the scheme.

Due to these changes to the scheme and the proposed application boundary, we are consulting with you again.

Please be assured that we still hold any responses you may already have provided.

We invite you to provide comments in writing; any comments you have made at meetings, in response to statutory consultation, and in response to this letter will be taken into account in preparing the application that will be submitted.

The deadline for all responses to this consultation is 23.59 on Wednesday 27 June 2018.

If you would like to meet with the Highways England team for more detailed discussions, please contact Michael Baker on 07780495993 or at Michael.Baker@Arup.com to arrange an appointment with the team. Please let us know if you would like to discuss a specific issue and we will try and make a relevant specialist available at the meeting.

Dear Jeremy

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross Scheme

Highways England will shortly begin a targeted, non-statutory consultation on changes to the red line boundary of our proposals for the construction of an 8.7-mile dual carriageway between Chiverton and Carland Cross (the scheme).

I wanted to let you know about the background to this non-statutory consultation, and explain what we are doing.

Changes to the red line boundary

As you are aware, we wrote to consultees on 29 January 2018 to notify them of the statutory consultation on the scheme proposals. Consultation closed on 12 March 2018.

Highways England has had regard to the consultation responses from relevant organisations, landowners and the public. As a result of this, we have further developed and refined the plans for the scheme.

These changes are being driven by a combination of consultation feedback, further environmental assessment information, up to date information from statutory undertakers on their requirements/location of their apparatus, and design changes linked to the constructability of the scheme.

Whilst the changes are localised in their nature, they will result in changes to the red line boundary. As such we are offering any persons with an interest in land directly affected by the scheme a further opportunity to comment. This will be a targeted consultation related to the proposed changes to the red line boundary.

We have written to all affected persons with an interest in land on Tuesday 29 May 2018, inviting comment by Wednesday 27 June 2018. We have enclosed a plan with the letter sent to the affected persons which shows the updated proposed scheme and red line boundary.

Next steps

We continue to assess comments made during the statutory consultation period, and prepare documents for the submission of the Development Consent Order (DCO) application.

In terms of ongoing engagement with Cornwall Council, we are looking forward to the meeting with Officers on 5 June 2018, which will provide training on the DCO process, followed by a workshop to discuss officers input to the Statement of Common Ground (SoCG) between Cornwall Council and Highways England.

If you would like to discuss any aspect of the scheme further, please contact us on A30ChivertontoCarlandCross@highwaysengland.co.uk or 0300 123 5000.

Dear Parish Clerk,

A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross Scheme

I'm writing to let you know that we will be contacting a number of landholders in the parish regarding the A30 Chiverton to Carland Cross scheme. We wanted to make you aware of this targeted consultation with affected individuals in case you received queries about it from your parishioners.

As you know, we consulted with people who we believed had an interest in land affected by the scheme during the recent statutory consultation. Where we now have more detail on land requirements, we are contacting landholders again to continue our discussions.

We are continuing to process and analyse consultation responses, and assess potential design changes. Once we have concluded this process, we will contact you again to arrange a briefing on our response to the statutory consultation in advance of the submission of the Development Consent Order (DCO) application.

If you would like to discuss any aspect of the scheme further, please contact us on A30ChivertontoCarlandCross@highwaysengland.co.uk or 0300 123 5000.
