Dear Madam or Sir

We are instructed in this matter by The Royal Horticultural Society. We will be attending the Preliminary Meeting on behalf of our client.

In accordance with Annex D of the Rule 6 Letter dated 15 October, please take this email as confirmation that we will wish to attend both of the Issue Specific and Open Floor Hearings and that we may wish to speak on behalf of our clients at those Hearings

Matters that we may wish to raise at the Issue Specific Hearing are broadly covered in the Agenda but we may also wish to raise:

- The extent to which the scope of authorised development may be amended within the terms of the dDCO; and
- How the ExA proposes to deal with matters not covered by the dDCO that the RHS (or any other IP) feels should be included in the scope of the authorised development (but which are currently absent).

Matters which we wish to speak about at the Open Floor Hearing are at present being considered but we note that we are advised not to repeat material that has already been included in our client's Representation.

Regards

Richard Max & Co
