

Submission ID: 18669

I suggest that the cost/benefit analysis in the planning application may be based on a false premise.

Submission ID: 18669

A solution based on a long tunnel on the existing Dartford alignment was rejected early in the planning process. The rejection was based on false costings. It is highly probable that a valid analysis would demonstrate that this solution would be superior to the planned proposal.