Summary of key points discussed and advice given

The Planning Inspectorate (the Inspectorate) advised that a note of the meeting would be taken and published on its website in accordance with section 51 of the Planning Act 2008 (the PA2008). Any advice given under section 51 would not constitute legal advice upon which applicants (or others) could rely.

The local authorities present talked through their concerns, including the consultation period and length, the volume of documents in the consultation, lack of traffic model evidence, the time between the end of consultation and re-submission and local interests, such as local road junctions etc.

Further meetings were offered.
