Dear Michele

Further to the preliminary meeting and open floor hearing held on 12 December 2018, Highways England writes to confirm that it does not intend to submit any documents relating to those sessions.

Highways England is not aware of any action points on it following the preliminary meeting.

As Highways England did not make its own submissions at the Open Floor Hearing, it considers that it is more useful to the Examination to deal with the topics raised by way of written responses to relevant representations and other written submissions (e.g. replies to questions from the Panel), rather than a summary of the brief replies given to points raised at the hearing.

Kind regards

Elliot
