Dear Madam

I write in support of Mr Bryan Norman. I have known Mr Norman for approaching sixty years. He worked together as partners in a leading national firm of commercial chartered surveyors, Fuller Peiser and Co, based in the City of London. Mr Norman subsequently founded Norman Rourke and Partners based in Grosvenor Street, London. I can confirm that Mr Norman introduced and developed the then new surveying skill of Project Management from the United States of America which has now become a self standing discipline within the profession. I am aware that in that capacity he acted for major companies such as GEC, Sun Alliance and Slater Walker.

I was pleased to be in partnership with Mr Norman. He is a man of great integrity and competence.

Yours faithfully

John E G Peiser JP(ret'd) FRICS
