Thank you for notifying Natural England of the publication of the Examining Authority’s commentaries and proposed changes to the draft Development Consent Order (dDCO) in your email of 14 January 2022.

Natural England is a non-departmental public body. Our statutory purpose is to ensure that the natural environment is conserved, enhanced, and managed for the benefit of present and future generations, thereby contributing to sustainable development.

Natural England has reviewed the Examining Authority’s commentaries and proposed changes to the draft Development Consent Order (dDCO). We are satisfied that the proposed changes are unlikely to have any significant implications for matters within Natural England’s statutory remit hence we have no comments to make.

I hope this is helpful.
