Dear James

Please find attached clean versions of the following documents;

1. Summary Written Representation
2. Written Representation
3. Responses to ExA Q1

Suggested view points for unaccompanied site visit

Historic England would also like to request the following view points for the consideration of the Examining Authority to include in their Site Visit

1. Emma's Grove Barrows – a walk around the mounds for context of their topographic location, proximity to the new carriageway and views back to Crickley Hill
2. Crickley Hill – visit to Crickley Hill for context of the view across to Peak Camp and to Emma's Grove Barrows for context of the landscape- wide setting of all the assets identified in the ES and referred to in Historic England's written representation.

Notification of Interested Party status

Historic England, as a Statutory Consultee, requests to be registered as an Interested Party and to be able to participate in any relevant hearings, if required to do so.

Statement of Common Ground

Historic England is working with the Applicant on a SOCG, the latest draft of which will be submitted by the Applicant.
