We are currently experiencing an increase in planning application submissions and enquiries. Our website on www.gateshead.gov.uk/planning may well provide the information you require or if you have a valid application, email your case officer. You will receive an acknowledgement but it may take longer for us to reply in detail. We are doing everything we can to deal with applications and correspondence as quickly as we can but you should expect some delay. We would encourage you to contact us by e mail if at all possible to free up our phone capacity for those who cannot use email.
