Dood morning Katy,

2nd email.

I have now discussed with Billy Welch and he would like to attend the ASI on 28th February. I have explained that this is not an opportunity to make his case, but that he may be asked to point out any features of interest. He will join you at 14.35 on site, but he will not participate in any other site visits before or after.

In case you are unaware, the gate off the A66 onto the existing site is usually kept locked, and you will need to make car parking arrangements depending on how many participants are expected.

Thanks,

Bill Lloyd

Good afternoon Bill.

Thank you for your email.

Please be aware we are not holding an Open Floor Hearing.

Having spoken with the Examining Authority (ExA), they are not intending to discuss the Brough Hill at the Hearings. If there is anything you wish to raise, you should do this under AOB at the Issue Specific Hearing 3-. The ISH3 is on the 2 March, please be aware the 3 March is the resumed ISH3 (if required).

The Accompanied Site Inspection (ASI) - 28 February 2023 will be visiting the Brough Hill site and the Bivvy Site. You would not be able to present evidence or speak about your concerns however, you would be able to point out anything you feel the ExA should see on site.

Let me know if you wish to attend the ASI.

Also, let me know which Hearing you wish to attend and if this is to be in person or virtual. If virtual, a virtual invite will be sent closer the time, so please provide the email address you wish this to be sent to.

Hope this helps.

Thanks,
Katy

Hello Katy,

I have made a written submission to register for the hearings on 1- 3rd March. I understand that Brough Hill Fair is not currently on the agenda for those hearings, so we are unsure which day to attend and would like to register for all three.

Can you confirm that we will get an opportunity to speak, and on which day?

Thanks and regards

Bill Lloyd

2nd reply

Good morning Bill,

I can confirm your previous submission will not overlap with the ones you are about to submit.

Kind regards,
Katy
