

The noise from the airport is already past the level it should be, if you expand the airport it will get worse.

Also the roads round Luton are not kept in a good state by the council and with more traffic will only get worse.

The airport should be closed down and moved somewhere there is space to cope with the increase in demand.