

My property is in Stevenage and directly on the flight path. The disruption to everyday life is already experienced. The proposed increase and thus disturbance to my quality of life is causing me a great deal of stress. My sleep is already disturbed by the loud volume as the planes begin their descent. More flights will mean more planes circling and causing both noise and environmental pollution.