

Submission ID: 20710

This application ignores health concerns and the wishes of the silent majority.

I smell plane pollution daily and my sleep and quality of life is already affected. This will get worse.

If we are serious about the environment and our citizens' health, then this application must be refused. The applicants care nothing for this, just about money.