Living in this part of Kent I do feel we have been forgotten, an open Manston Airport will create jobs, which are desperately needed. Anyone traveling to a "local" London airport has a travel time of at least 1 hour 45 mins (to the nearest one) from Thanet and with the increased homes in Kent and along the route that journey time is getting much longer. Thanet is getting lots of houses and it is getting more difficult to travel around because of the increase in traffic, if they do build on Manston Airport with many thousands of houses the island will become even more gridlocked. The Doctors, Dentists and Hospitals are running flat out and an increase of houses can only make things worse for the area. Thank you. Mr K. Crowhurst.
