Dear Pins,

I am writing to let you know that I fully support the re-opening of Manston Airport, and having read your intended restriction on passenger flight times between 9 am and 12 noon, I am at a loss as to why this would be necessary as there is little congestion between these times around the airport. I am concerned that these restrictions could dissuade some passenger airlines coming to Manston. It would make more sense to encourage use rather than deter.

Yours Sincerely,

Len Chubb
