Sirs, Madams,

Why are we, the public, even having to go here again?

We have dug deep into our collective pockets to show OUR opinion before about this business.

The Judicial review has highlighted the case for redevelopment as wrong on all fronts.

Are we therefore subjected to this insulting re-wording as a joke?

What are your names?

Why are you still shuffling papers around on this?

What are your intentions here?

Is it to ignore the Judicial review on some personal business?

Is it to try and gain financially regardless of the judicial review?

Please explain in plain English your intentions, as I pledged hard earned money towards the Judicial review and now , despite the outcome, you are still apparently here, making noises.

Why?
