Dear Sirs

The way I see this is .If Ann Clough had sold to Riveroaks when she shut down Manston a DCO would not be needed as basically it would have carried on as Kent International . She then stripped all its assets and made a fortune . But now Riveroaks own it they have been stopped from there project that I believe it is Important to the area and the country. You never know when this massive runway will be needed as it was in world wars 1 & 2 and the Falklands issue. Riveroaks say they have the money and connections to do this so why not let them try it won't cost the rate payers anything.
