Hi there

We were advised that the suite of responses to the first redetermination had been published on 30 July and at that time there were 423 submissions, including the letter from the Secretary of State, which we are analysing. It has come to our attention that there are now 438 submissions on the website so some more have been added, but they are still dated 30 July and have just been inserted in the middle of the list somewhere.

Please could you either confirm that all the responses have now been published, or if you add any new ones, let us know or add them to the beginning of the list or give them a date that is later than 30 July, otherwise we may miss them.

Many thanks

Hi Naomi
I hope you are well. Is there any news on the timing of round 2 of the redetermination?
Many thanks
