Dear Hon Grant Shapps

I write with reference to the D.C.O of Manston Airport.

With regards to what seems like a long drawn out wait I am concerned that the people of Thanet are still in the same position while awaiting progress for the opening of this much needed airport. There is still a need for jobs here in this disadvantaged area and improvement that this airport can bring, at no cost to our Government. It is a wonderful investment from R.S.P for our area.

The so called "levelling up" which has been much discussed by the Conservative Government is more than needed here for the future prosperity. Without Manston Airport Thanet is just an uphill non progressive area going nowhere in particular.

Yours Sincerely

Janet Eagle
