

Local Authorities will obviously be for this. However the reality is that the road network cannot cope with any more traffic as house building continues relentlessly. The jobs created are not good jobs and not conducive to normal happy homes. Aircraft continually wait, engines running, waiting for a stand. No staff to do the jobs so how on earth is putting more aircraft into LGW going to help.