

I am absolutely confused by this process, but I would like to reiterate my objection to expansion on the following grounds:

- 1) the emissions from flying are contributing to an imminent climate change environmental crisis. Increasing flying is madness and a betrayal of future generations.
- 2) loss of sleep through interruption from aircraft noise is a health hazard for the population affected. Night flying should be banned.