

Submission ID: 27073

A new runway is not needed. This kind of "growth" is the opposite of what the UK needs. Money should be invested instead on green energy and sustainability projects, electric car charging network, insulating buildings, better windows, etc. rather than a highly polluting sector.