

Submission ID: 27287

I cannot understand how the government could consider increased noise and air pollution by allowing vastly increased aircraft movements at Gatwick and the consequent increased traffic. when they are committed to reducing emissions. The planned proposal will cause misery to many thousands of people and potential decreased mental and physical health