

I think it is of utmost importance the plans are agreed and implemented in a timely manner. The area around Gatwick was disproportionately affected by covid, as the area virtually ceased trading we need some stimulation to get back on track.