

Submission ID: 29970

The proposed new runway is against established policy. Intensification of the air space will lead to greater noise pollution which is already at unacceptable levels (particularly at night) for those like us living under the flightpath.