

Submission ID: 30031

Unless the infrastructure inside the airport is increased it would be madness to add additional passengers to the airport . It is chaos at busy times, restaurants are full to capacity now , not enough seating etc etc
Plus car park space , increased traffic concerns , increased noise concerns from additional planes