

As the Development Consent Order (DCO) application has not yet been submitted to the Planning Inspectorate, it is not currently possible to register as an Interested Party. Should the DCO application be accepted for Examination, you will be able to register as an Interested Party by submitting a Relevant Representation. This must be submitted on the 'Registration and Relevant Representation form' which will be made available on the project webpage of the National Infrastructure Planning website at the appropriate time.

Further information about registering as an Interested Party can be found in the Planning Inspectorate's 'Advice Note 8.2: How to register to participate in an Examination'.

You may also find it helpful to subscribe to receive email notifications for key events that occur after an application has been submitted to the Planning Inspectorate, including notification of when it is possible to submit a Relevant Representation.
