

Agenda for the Issue Specific Hearing into the wording of the DCO, including it's the Requirements and protective provisions proposed to be appended and the wording of the draft undertaking.

Date of meeting: Friday 25 September 2015

Seating available from: 9.30am
Hearing begins: 10.00am

Venue: Redcar Leisure & Community Heart Ridley Street
Redcar
Cleveland TS10 1TD

1	Welcome and Introductions	10.00
2	Examining Authority's remarks about the examination process	10.05
3	Presentation by the applicant of the changes embodied in the revised draft DCO and Explanatory Memorandum	10.10
4	Questions by ExA regarding any necessary clarification of the applicant's intentions.
5	General cases of those interested parties who wish to be heard, in the following order: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The views of statutory consultees, as to whether mitigation sought is now sufficiently embodied within the wording of the proposed DCO and appended schedules and undertaking.</li> <li>2. The views of statutory undertakers and other enterprises who consider that their interests are affected by the provisions of the proposed DCO, as to whether mitigation sought is now sufficiently embodied within the wording of the proposed DCO and appended schedules and undertaking.</li> <li>3. Any other IPs having general points to raise.</li> </ol> The ExA may ask questions of each of the persons who are heard, including seeking clarification on matters outstanding that may be holding up agreement on protective provisions or any other changes sought to the wording of the proposed DCO. The ExA will invite response from the applicant to all representations made.
6	The ExA will then guide participants through the DCO so that participants may raise any wording sought to be changed. Articles and schedules will be considered in order including requirements and protective provisions and any related documents that are referred to in the DCO or required to secure mitigation will also be considered. The ExA will invite response of the applicant to any suggestions made.

Please note: The timing above is only indicative; please register and be available from 10am and be available throughout the hearing. The ExA will conclude the meeting as soon as all relevant contributions have been made. If a significant number of affected persons wish to be heard, the ExA will seek to establish a timetable under item 2, but if submissions take a considerable amount of time, the order of items may change.