Good Morning,

I am writing to confirm that three members of the Marine Management Organisation (MMO) will be in attendance at the preliminary hearing for the above application on 20th February 2018. These members will be Heather Hamilton, Jayne Burns and Brian Hawkins. Case Officer, Case Manager and Senior Case Manager respectively.

The MMO's issues of concern are contained within its Relevant Representation and of the Principle Issues detailed in Annex B of the Rule 6 letter, the MMO may wish to address the panel on the following:

- Construction
- Cumulative and Combined Impacts
- Draft Development Consent Order (dDCO) Matters
- Dredging and Navigation
- Noise and Vibration
- Biodiversity, Ecology and Natural Environment

The MMO may also wish to address the panel on Item 4 of the Preliminary Meeting Agenda, specifically the submission of Statements of Common Grounds (SoCG). This would be in terms of the submission dates and the SoCG the MMO have been asked to produce with the applicant.

With regards to the Open Floor Hearings and the Issue Specific Hearing on the dDCO (20th and 21st February respectively), the above three members of the MMO will also be in attendance.

Kind regards,

Heather Hamilton | Marine Licensing Case Officer | Her Majesty's Government – Marine Management Organisation
