ExA Questions ExQ1: 19 November 2021

Q11.0.8 HMBCE Are Historic England content to rely on the safeguards within the existing DCO? Does Historic England wish to comment on any of the ExQ1 questions?

Historic England response - with apologies for lateness

- A) Historic England are content to rely upon the safeguards within the existing DCO, specifically it is important to retain the DCO requirement for submission of WSI (written scheme of investigation) to the LPA post-consent and their approval of iterative and updated versions thereof, viz Requirement 17 of the original DCO allows for the Marine WSI to be reviewed at any time. We understand that a SoCG between NLC and the Applicant is in preparation and we refer you to that SoCG as regards their discussions with regards to Archaeological WSI matters.

- B) Historic England would welcome an update on the delivery of Requirement 18 of the original DCO with regard to the listed building named 'Killingholme North Low Lighthouse' [REDACTED], and the preparation 18 (1) and implementation 18 (2) of the management plan for that building.

Yours sincerely
Tim Allen
