

From: [REDACTED]
To: West Midlands Interchange
Subject: Four Ashes development
Date: 06 August 2019 09:32:50

The destruction of the green belt for multiple large scale warehouse facility can not be good for the community. The effect his will have on wildlife, pollution etc and the permanent loss of green belt can not be justified.

I recently moved into the area because of being closer to nature and being close to the countryside.

Surely there must be other viable brown land that could be utilised for job creation without destroying the countryside Staffordshire prides itself on.