Dear Secretary of State

I live in Hinckley and welcome the national infrastructure project known as Hinckley National Rail Freight Terminal. No doubt you have and will receive a predominance of emails resisting this project - including from our local MPs and Borough Councillors so I'll keep mine brief.

I live in Hinckley close to the proposed site of this development. I am mid 50s and lucky to have benefitted well from a successful career in public service. I own and live in a nice house and greatly enjoy the environs of the surrounding countryside. Typically I'd be a NIMBY, but this area needs jobs which promote a brighter future for the younger generation.

The shops and businesses need shoppers and clients. The area in general is crying out for investment.

Perhaps some of the 'haves' in the locale should be less selfish in benefit of the 'have nots' for once.

With best wishes,

Andy Logie.
