Dear Tayo,

thank you for your email. I can confirm that we will be attending the hearings programmed for 3rd and 4th December. I will confirm our attendance for future meetings by 6th December as you have requested.

Our participation in these hearings will be based on our opposition to the compulsory acquisition of Carnwath Road Industrial estate, but will also touch on other aspects of compulsory acquisition where relevant.

Richard Turney who is a barrister instructed by the council will be speaking on our behalf.

Our unique reference number is 10018511

kind regards,

David

Subject: WW010001 Application by Thames Water Utilities Ltd for the Proposed Thames Tideway Tunnel - Compulsory Acquisition Hearings in December (weeks 2-4) - Request to Confirm Attendance

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Inspectorate has previously been advised that you or the organisation you represent, has either made a request for the holding of a compulsory acquisition hearing; or indicated a wish to speak at such a hearing, in relation to the Thames Tideway Tunnel application under examination. There will be borough by borough hearings over the next three weeks, including this week, to hear the associated oral representations from affected persons and any other interested parties.

24/12/2013

Pleaser refer to the agenda below to confirm:

- the day(s) on which you will be attending to make an oral representation;
- the organisation(s) being represented (if relevant);
- the associated unique reference number(s);
- the name of the person(s) who will be speaking; and
- the subject(s) they wish to elaborate on.

I would appreciate it if any speakers attending this week's hearings could please confirm their intentions by 5 pm today if possible; and for hearings over the following weeks by 5pm on Friday 6 December.
